ACAP2025 Opening Speeches March 18, 10:30-11:30

Mission of ASEAN Center for Active Aging and Innovation (ACAI)

by Somsak Akksilp, MD

Executive Director, ASEAN Center for Active Aging and Innovation

For what will “Fukuoka 100” aims?

by Mr. Kouichi Fujimoto

Chief Executive, Public Welfare Bureau, Fukuoka-city

Symposium 1 Generative Issues on Global Aging

March 17,
13:00 - 14:30

Population aging has now become a global issue. What should we learn from the efforts of Japan as the most advanced aging country? International gerontologists unravel the problem.

Moderator: Dr. Irene Blackberry, Care Economy Research Institute, La Trobe University

Symposium 2 Cross-Border Care Workers

March 17,
15:00 - 16:30

In accordance with global aging, care economy and the care work will move across borders. How has Japan responded to the cross-border migration of care workers?

Moderator: Dr. Tri Budi Rahardjo, University Respati Indonesia

Symposium 3 Digital Inclusion for Older Persons

March 18,
10:00 - 11:30

We are living in an era of technological innovation called Society 5.0. To ensure that older people are not left behind, we aim at improving labor productivity while also achieving humanistic technological innovation. This is one of the missions of the Fukuoka 100.

Moderator: Dr. Leng Leng Thang, National University of Singapore

Symposium 4 Dementia-Friendly Environment

March 18,
13:00 - 14:30

The number of people with mild cognitive impairment (MCI) and dementia is increasing rapidly. In Fukuoka City, care skills are shared and disseminated to all citizens, and Fukuoka facilities are designed so that those with dementia can live with dignity, care, and compassion.

Moderator: Dr. Kathryn Braun, University of Hawaii

Symposium 5 Inter-Generational Relationship

March 18,
15:00 - 16:30

The rapid expansion of the older generations and the rapid decline of the youth have destabilized intergenerational relations. How do we ensure good intergenerational relations in the future?

Moderator: Dr. Teresa Tsien, Hong Kong Polytech University
